

BUSINESS CREDIT CARD AGREEMENT

This Business Credit Card Agreement ("Agreement") includes this document, any letter, card carrier, card insert, addendums, any other document accompanying this Agreement, any application that you signed or submitted to the Credit Union, and any notification of changes to this Agreement. The words "you" and "your" mean each person, each business or organization ("organization"), and each officer or owner of the organization who agrees to be bound by this Agreement as set forth below. The words we, our, us and "Credit Union" means the Credit Union whose name appears on this Agreement or anyone to whom the Credit Union transfers this Agreement. The word "card" means the Mastercard business credit card you receive from the Credit Union and any duplicates, renewals, or substitutions the Credit Union issues to you. The word "account" means the credit card line of credit account the Credit Union approves for you that is subject to this Agreement.

1. PERSONS BOUND. By signing, or otherwise authenticating, any business loan application stating your agreement to be bound by this Agreement or by using the card or account we issue to you, or by authorizing an employee to use the card or account we issue to you, you agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement. If you are an officer or owner obtaining an account for your organization, you agree to the terms of this Agreement in your personal capacity as well as your capacity as an officer or owner authorized to bind the organization to this Agreement.

2. USING YOUR ACCOUNT. If you are approved for an account, the Credit Union will establish a line of credit for you. The amount of your credit limit is set forth on the Addendum accompanying this Agreement. You agree that your credit limit is the maximum amount (purchases, cash advances, finance charges, plus "other charges") that you will have outstanding on your account at any time. If you exceed your credit limit, you must pay the amount you are over your limit plus any fees and unpaid finance charges before payments will begin to restore your credit limit. In addition, a fee may be imposed for exceeding your credit limit. You may request an increase in your credit limit only by a method acceptable to the Credit Union. The Credit Union may increase or decrease your credit limit, refuse to make an advance, and/or terminate your account at any time for any reason not prohibited by law. If you are permitted to obtain cash advances on your account, we may from time to time issue convenience checks to you that may be drawn on your account.

3. STATEMENT OF BUSINESS PURPOSE. You agree that you have represented to us that you are obtaining your account for business purposes and that all purchases, cash advances, balance transfers, use of any convenience checks issued on your account, and any other use of your account will only be for a business purpose. You agree that you will never use your account for any personal, household, or family purposes.

4. USING YOUR CARD. You may use your card to make purchases from merchants and others who accept your card. The Credit Union is not responsible for the refusal of any merchant or financial institution to honor your card. If you wish to pay for goods or services over the Internet, you may be required to provide card number security information before you will be permitted to complete the transaction. In addition, the Credit Union may permit you to obtain cash advances from the Credit Union, from other financial institutions that accept your card, and from some automated teller machines (ATMs). You understand that not all ATMs may accept your card. If the Credit Union authorizes ATM transactions with your card, it will issue you a personal identification number (PIN). To obtain cash advances from an ATM, you must use the PIN that is issued to you for use with your card. You agree that you will not use your card for any transaction that is illegal under applicable federal, state, or local law. Even if you use your card for an illegal transaction, you will be responsible for all amounts and charges incurred in connection with the transaction. If you are permitted to obtain cash advances on your account, you may also use your card to purchase instruments and engage in transactions that we consider the equivalent of cash. Such transactions will be posted to your account as a cash advance and include, but are not limited to, wire transfers, money orders, bets, lottery tickets, and casino gaming chips as applicable. This paragraph shall not be interpreted as permitting or authorizing any transaction that is illegal.

5. RESPONSIBILITY. You agree to pay all charges (purchases, cash advances, balance transfers, use of convenience checks, and any other charge) to your account that are made by you or anyone whom you authorize to use your account. You also agree to pay all finance charges and other charges added to your account under the terms of this Agreement or another agreement you made with the Credit Union. If there is more than one person bound to this Agreement, each will be individually and jointly responsible for paying all amounts owed under this Agreement. If you are an organization, the officer or owner that obtained the account for the organization is also personally obligated for all charges made under the account. This means that the Credit Union can require any one of you to individually repay the entire amount owed under this Agreement. In addition, each person bound under this Agreement, as well as any authorized user, may make purchases individually and, if cash advances are permitted for your account, may obtain cash advances individually.

6. INTEREST RATE. The Interest Rates applicable to purchases, cash advances, and balance transfers are disclosed on the Addendum that accompanies this Agreement. Any penalty rate that may be imposed is also disclosed on the Addendum. These rates may be either fixed or variable as disclosed in the Addendum accompanying this Agreement. If the rate for your account is fixed, the rate charged on purchases, cash advances, balance transfers, and any penalty rate will not vary from month to month unless we notify you in advance that the rate will change. If the rate for your account is variable, as indicated on the accompanying Addendum, the rate charged on purchases, cash advances, balance transfers and any penalty rate will vary periodically as disclosed in the Addendum accompanying this Agreement. The initial rate on your account for certain types of transactions may be an introductory discounted rate (Introductory Rate) that is lower than the rate that would ordinarily apply for that type of transaction. If an Introductory Rate applies to your account, the rates and the period of time it will be effective is shown on the Addendum accompanying this Agreement. After the Introductory Rate period expires, the Interest Rate will automatically increase to the rates that would ordinarily apply for that type of transaction based on the terms of this Agreement.

7. FINANCE CHARGE CALCULATION METHOD FOR PURCHASES. New purchases posted to your account during a billing cycle will not incur a finance charge for that billing cycle. Finance charges begin to accrue on those purchases from the first day of the next billing cycle unless you paid the entire New Balance on the previous cycle's billing statement by the Payment Due Date of that statement. To avoid an additional finance charge on the balance of purchases, you must pay the entire New Balance on the billing statement by the Payment Due Date of that statement. The finance charge is calculated separately for purchases and cash advances. For purchases, the finance charge is computed by applying the periodic rate to the average daily balance of purchases. To get the average daily balance of purchases, we take the beginning outstanding balance of purchases each day and subtract any payments and/or credits that we apply to the purchase balance (we do not add in any purchases posted during the billing cycle). This gives us the daily balance of purchases. Then, we add all the daily balances of purchases for the billing cycle together and divide the total by the number of days in the billing cycle. This gives us the average daily balance of purchases.

8. FINANCE CHARGE CALCULATION METHOD FOR CASH ADVANCES. A finance charge begins to accrue on cash advances from the date you get the cash advance or from the first day of the billing cycle in which the cash advance is posted to your account, whichever is later. For cash advances, the finance charge is computed by applying the periodic rate to the average daily balance of cash advances. To get the average daily balance of cash advances, we take the beginning outstanding balance of cash advances each day, add in any new cash advances, and subtract any payments and/or credits that we apply to the cash advance balance. This gives us the daily balance of cash advances. Then, we add all the daily balances of cash advances for the billing cycle together and divide the total by the number of days in the billing cycle. This gives us the average daily balance of cash advances.

9. OTHER CHARGES. In addition to the Interest Rate, additional fees may be imposed on your account. The amount and description of these fees are disclosed on the Addendum accompanying this Agreement.

10. PAYMENTS. Each month you must pay at least the minimum payment shown on your statement by the date specified on the statement. All payments must be made in U.S. dollars and if made by a negotiable instrument such as a check or money order, must be in a form acceptable to us and drawn on a U.S. financial institution. You may pay more frequently, pay more than the minimum payment or pay the Total New Balance in full. If you make extra or larger payments, you are still required to make at least the minimum payment each month your account has a balance (other than a credit balance). The minimum payment for your account is shown on the Addendum accompanying this Agreement. In addition to the minimum payment you must also pay, by the date specified on the statement, the amount of any prior minimum payment(s) that you have not made, all outstanding unpaid fees and charges, and any amount you are over your credit limit. The Credit Union also has the right to demand immediate payment of any amount by which you are over your credit limit.

Subject to applicable law, your payments may be applied to what you owe to the Credit Union in any manner the Credit Union chooses. We may accept checks marked "payment in full" or with words of similar effect without losing any of our rights to collect the full balance of your account with us.

11. FOREIGN TRANSACTIONS. Purchases and cash advances made in foreign currencies will be debited from your account in U.S. dollars. The exchange rate used to convert foreign currency transactions to U.S. dollars is based on rates observed in the wholesale market or government-mandated rates, where applicable. The currency conversion rate Mastercard uses for a particular transaction is the rate for the applicable currency on the date the transaction occurs. However, in limited situations, particularly where transaction submissions to Mastercard for processing are delayed, the currency conversion rate Mastercard uses may be the rate for the applicable currency on the date the transaction is processed.

12. COLLECTION COSTS. You agree to pay all costs of collecting the amount you owe under this Agreement, including court costs and reasonable attorneys' fee, as permitted by applicable state law.

13. SECURITY INTEREST. If you give the Credit Union a specific pledge of shares by signing a separate pledge of shares, your pledged shares will secure your account. You may not withdraw amounts that have been specifically pledged to secure your account until the Credit Union agrees to release all or part of the pledged amount. In addition, your account is secured by all other shares you have in any individual or joint account with the Credit Union, except for shares in an Individual Retirement Account or in any other account that would lose special tax treatment under state or federal law if given as security. These other shares may be withdrawn unless you are in default under this Agreement. You authorize the Credit Union to apply the balance in your individual or joint share accounts to pay any amounts due on your account if you should default. Collateral securing other loans you have with the Credit Union may also secure this loan, except that a dwelling will never be considered as security for this account, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other agreement.

14. DEFAULT. You will be in default if you fail to make any minimum payment or other required payment by the date that it is due. You will be in default if you: break any promise you make under this Agreement; exceed your credit limit; are a natural person and you die; are an organization and you cease to exist; are an organization and you change your legal structure so that the person obligating the organization to this Agreement is no longer authorized to bind it to legal agreements; file for bankruptcy or become insolvent; make any false or misleading statements in any credit application or credit update; or if something happens that the Credit Union believes may substantially reduce your ability to repay what you owe. When you are in default, the Credit Union has the right to demand immediate payment of your full account balance without giving you notice. If immediate payment is demanded, you agree to continue paying finance charges at the applicable interest rate until what you owe has been paid, and any shares that were given as security for your account may be applied towards what you owe.

15. CHANGING OR TERMINATING YOUR ACCOUNT. The Credit Union may change the terms of this Agreement and any attached Addendum from time to time. Notice of any change will be given in accordance with applicable law. If permitted by law, the change will apply to your existing account balance as well as to future transactions.

Either you or the Credit Union may terminate this Agreement at any time, but termination by you or the Credit Union will not affect your obligation to pay the account balance plus any finance and other charges you owe under this Agreement. You are also responsible for all transactions made to your account after termination, unless the transactions were unauthorized.

The card or cards you receive remain the property of the Credit Union and you must recover and surrender to the Credit Union all cards upon request or upon termination of this Agreement whether by you or the Credit Union. The Credit Union has the right to require you to pay your full account balance at any time after your account is terminated, whether it is terminated by you or the Credit Union.

16. CHANGING OR TERMINATING AUTHORIZED USERS. Upon your request, we may issue additional cards for authorized users that you designate. You must notify us in writing of any termination of an authorized user's right to access your account. Your letter must include the name of the authorized user and your account number and/or any subaccount number issued to the authorized user along with the authorized user's card and any convenience or other access checks issued to the authorized user. If you cannot return the authorized user's card or access checks and if you request your account to be closed, we will close your account and you may apply for a new account.

17. LIABILITY FOR UNAUTHORIZED USE-LOST/STOLEN CARD NOTIFICATION. You may be liable for the unauthorized use of your card or account. Notify us immediately, in writing or by telephone, at the address included on your statement or at (888) 999-0103, seven days a week 24 hours a day or (531) 233-6344

(International Collect Call), seven days a week 24 hours a day if your card is lost, stolen or you suspect there has been unauthorized use of your card or account. After we receive your notification, you will not be liable for any further unauthorized use of your card or account.

If you are an organization with 10 or more employees and we have issued 10 or more cards on your account for use by your employees, you will be liable for all unauthorized use of your cards or account before notification to us unless your liability may be limited by Mastercard liability limitation rules as set forth below. Otherwise, you will be liable for up to $50 for the unauthorized use of your card or account before notification to us unless your liability is further limited by Mastercard liability limitation rules as set forth below. Unauthorized use does not include use of a card by an authorized user in an unauthorized manner.

If your card is a Mastercard, you may not be liable for any unauthorized transactions if you exercise reasonable care in safeguarding your card from risk of loss or theft and, upon discovering the loss or theft promptly report the loss or theft to us.

18. CREDIT REVIEW AND RELEASE OF INFORMATION. You authorize the Credit Union to investigate your credit standing when opening or reviewing your account. You authorize the Credit Union to disclose information regarding your account to credit bureaus and creditors who inquire about your credit standing. If your account is eligible for emergency cash and/or emergency card replacement services, and you request such services, you agree that we may provide personal information about you and your account that is necessary to provide you with the requested service(s).

19. RETURNS AND ADJUSTMENTS. Merchants and others who honor your card may give credit for returns or adjustments, and they will do so by sending the Credit Union a credit slip which will be posted to your account. If your credits and payments exceed what you owe the Credit Union, the amount will be applied against future purchases and cash advances. If the credit balance amount is $1 or more, it will be refunded upon your written request or automatically after six (6) months.

20. ADDITIONAL BENEFITS/CARD ENHANCEMENTS. The Credit Union may from time to time offer additional services to your account, such as travel accident insurance or a liability waiver program, at no additional cost to you. You understand that the Credit Union is not obligated to offer such services and may withdraw or change them at any time.

21. EFFECT OF AGREEMENT. This Agreement is the contract which applies to all transactions on your account even though the sales, cash advances, credits, or other slips you sign or receive may contain different terms.

22. NO WAIVER. The Credit Union can delay enforcing any of its rights any number of times without losing them.

23. STATEMENTS AND NOTICES. Unless separate subaccounts have been set up under your account for authorized users, statements and notices will be mailed to you at the appropriate address you have given the Credit Union. You agree to notify us at least 10 days in advance of any change in address. Notice sent to any one person bound under this Agreement will be considered notice to all. If we have agreed to send statements for subaccounts under your account that have been issued to authorized users, we will send statements to the appropriate address you have provided for that authorized user. You agree to notify us at least 10 days in advance of any change in address for an authorized user. You are responsible for payment of all amounts shown on a statement delivered to an authorized user.

24. NOTIFICATION OF CHANGE IN LEGAL STRUCTURE, OFFICERS OR OWNERS. If you are an organization, you agree to notify us within 10 days of any change in your legal structure or any change in your officers or owners.

25. SEVERABILITY AND FINAL EXPRESSION. This Agreement is the final expression of the terms and conditions of your account. This written Agreement may not be contradicted by evidence of any alleged oral agreement. Should any part of this Agreement be found to be invalid or unenforceable, all other parts of this Agreement shall remain in effect and fully enforceable to the fullest extent possible under this Agreement.

26. GAMBLING TRANSACTIONS PROHIBITED. You may not use your card to initiate any type of gambling transaction.

27. CONVENIENCE CHECKS. We may, from time to time, issue convenience checks to you that may be drawn on your account. Convenience checks may not be used to make a payment on your account. If you use a convenience check, it will be posted to your account as a cash advance. We reserve the right to refuse to pay a convenience check drawn on your account for any reason and such refusal shall not constitute wrongful dishonor. You may request that we stop the payment of a convenience check drawn on your account. You agree to pay any fee as identified in this Agreement imposed to stop a payment on a convenience check issued on your account. You may make a stop payment request orally, if permitted, or in writing. Your request must be made with sufficient time in advance of the presentment of the check for payment to give us a reasonable opportunity to act on your request. In addition, your request must accurately describe the check including the exact Account number, the payee, any check number that may be applicable, and the exact amount of the check. If permitted, you may make a stop payment request orally, but such a request will expire after 14 days unless you confirm your request in writing within that time. Written stop payment orders are effective only for six months and may be renewed for additional six-month periods by requesting in writing that the stop payment order be renewed. We are not required to notify you when a stop payment order expires.

If we re-credit your account after paying a check over a valid and timely stop payment order, you agree to sign a statement describing the dispute with the payee, to assign to us all of your rights against the payee or other holders of the check and to assist us in any legal action.

You agree to indemnify and hold us harmless from all costs and expenses, including attorney's fees, damages, or claims, related to our honoring your stop payment request or in failing to stop payment of an item as a result of incorrect information provided to us or the giving of inadequate time to act upon a stop payment request. Note: A convenience check is not a check as that term is defined under the Uniform Commercial Code. It is an advance from your credit card account with us and your stop payment rights are provided under this Agreement with us.

28. GOVERNING LAW. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the state of Florida.
